In memory of

Lance Corporal (Piper)

Alexander Drylie Clunie

5th (Service) Battalion Cameron Highlanders
Service No: 9259

Killed in Action on the 03/05/1917 at the 3rd Battle of the Scarpe (part of the Battle of Arras), age 24 / DOB - 09/07/1892. Youngest son of John Clunie (1854 -) and Elizabeth Duncan Clunie (1856 - 13/12/1929) of 29 Ronald St, Coatbridge. Husband of Margaret Wallace Clunie (21/08/1893 -) of 162 Main St, Coatbridge. Alexander had 2 brothers serving one of which Driver William Letham Clunie of the Royal Field Artillery Died of Wounds on the 01/08/1916. From the 1901 Census - Address - 137 North Square, Coatbridge - John Clunie aged 47, Elizabeth Duncan Clunie aged 43, Martha Letham Clunie aged 21, Andrew Clunie aged 19, John Duncan Clunie aged 17, James Duncan Clunie aged 15, Robert Duncan Clunie aged 13, William Letham Clunie aged 10, Alexander Drylie Clunie aged 8, Elizabeth Duncan Clunie aged 6, Annie Drylie Clunie aged 3. Alexander's Pension was awarded to his wife Margaret on the 04/01/1919. Employment was in Barrhead.

Buried/remembered at Arras Memorial (Bay 9), Pas de Calais, France.

1914  1918

©2023 coatbridgeandthegreatwar.com