In memory of

Able Seaman

William Forsyth

Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve H.M.S. "Natal"
Service No: Clyde Z/5693

Died on the 30/12/1915 aboard H.M.S. "Natal", age 18 / DOB - 03/04/1897. Son of William and Susan Graham Forsyth of 17 Coathill St, Coatbridge. William's elder brother Able Seaman James Forsyth died at home from Broncho Pneumonia. His other brother Henry was also with the Royal Naval Division. From the 1901 Census - Address - 112 Whifflet St, Coatbridge - William Forsyth aged 43, Susan Forsyth aged 43, Agnes Forsyth aged 17, Henry Forsyth aged 13, George Forsyth aged 10, James Forsyth aged 8, William Forsyth aged 3, William's fathers mother-in-law Ann Graham aged 79. Employment was Lochrin Iron Works.

Buried/remembered at Portsmouth Naval Memorial (10), England.

1914  1918

©2023 coatbridgeandthegreatwar.com