In memory of

Sergeant

John Robertson Hodge

1/8th Battalion Cameronians (Scottish Rifles)
Service No: 8698

Killed in Action on the 28/06/1915 at the Battle of Gully Ravine, Cape Helles, Gallipoli, age 33 / DOB - 18/12/1882. Son of William (25/02/1855 - 10/05/1936) and Elizabeth McGladerie Hodge (20/08/1850 - 1930). Husband of Isabella Hodge (01/10/1883 -) of 120 Dunbeth Rd, Coatbridge. They had 4 children - Isabella Irvine Hodge (10/08/1908 -), Elizabeth McGladerie Hodge (24/02/1910 -), Jeanie Adamina Stewart Hodge (22/01/1912 -) and Marion Lindsay Hodge (27/08/1914 -). From the 1891 Census - Address - 15 Newland Land, Craignuek, Lanarkshire - William Hodge aged 37, Elizabeth Hodge aged 40, Agnes Hodge aged 11, Robert Hodge aged 10, John Hodge aged 9, William Hodge aged 6, boarder James Brown aged 23. From the 1901 Census - Address - 3b Hutchison St, Coatbridge -William Hodge aged 46, Elizabeth Hodge aged 50, Elizabeth Hodge aged 25, Agnes Hodge aged 21, Robert Hodge aged 20, John Hodge aged 18, William Hodge aged 16, Sarah Hodge aged 9, Mary Hodge aged 5. John's Pension was awarded to his wife Isabella on the 19/02/1916. Employment was Iron Puddler.

Buried/remembered at Helles Memorial (Panel 93 to 98), Turkey.

1914  1918

©2023 coatbridgeandthegreatwar.com