

In memory of

Trooper
John Jeffrey

1st Australian Light Horse Regiment, 1st Light Horse Brigade, Australian Imperial Forces
Service No: 784

Killed in Action on the 07/08/1915 at the Assault at Lone Pine, Gallipoli, age 20 / DOB - 22/05/1895. Only son of John Hogg Forrester and Jeannie Brownlie Jeffrey of 5 Albany St, Coatbridge then The Laurels, Joinings Bank, Langley Green, Birmingham, England. John's father was the librarian for the Coatbridge Choral Union and also Captain of the 1st Coatbridge Boys Brigade. John left all his property and effects to his father which included a comforter, gloves, purse and a bible. From the 1901 Census - Address - 25 Dunbeth Avenue, Coatbridge - John H F Jeffrey aged 32, Jeanie Jeffrey aged 26, John Jeffrey aged 5, Marguerite B F Jeffrey aged 3. Employment was Employed as a Station Hand in sheep farming in Sydney. In Coatbridge he was employed for 3 years in the Engineering works of Messrs Murray and Paterson.

Buried/remembered at Lone Pine Memorial, Turkey (including Gallipoli)

1914 1918

©2023 coatbridgeandthegreatwar.com