In memory of

Able Seaman

John Lindsay

Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve 2nd "Hawke" Battalion 63rd (Royal Naval) Division
Service No: Clyde Z/7368

Killed in Action on the 05/02/1917 during the Operations on the Ancre, age 20 / DOB - 04/03/1896. Son of George (18/08/1861 - 05/04/1899) and Mary Hynd Lindsay (13/01/1862 -) of 73d Buchanan St, Coatbridge. John was the younger brother of Private George Lindsay of the 7th (Service) Battalion East Yorkshire Regiment who was Killed in Action on the 18/09/1918. John's younger brother Charles enlisted on the 02/03/1916 in the 3rd Battalion Highland Light Infantry then transferred to the Scottish Rifles. He survived the war. From the 1901 Census - Address - 228a Bank St, Coatbridge - Mary Lindsay aged 39, George's half-brother Alexander Lindsay aged 12, Elizabeth Lindsay aged 9 (30/08/1891 - 09/12/1967), George Lindsay aged 7, John Lindsay aged 5, Charles Lindsay aged 2. John's Pension was awarded to his mother Mary on the 30/07/1917. Employment was Miner in Mount Vernon Colliery, Glasgow

Buried/remembered at Ancre British Cemetery (V. D. 33), Beaumont Hamel, Somme, France.

1914  1918

©2023 coatbridgeandthegreatwar.com