

In memory of

Private
Robert McGarry

11th Battalion 3rd Infantry Brigade "D" Company Australian Imperial Forces
Service No: 1453

Killed in Action on the 06/08/1915 at Gallipoli, age 36 / DOB - 30/10/1878. Son of the late George McGarry and Ann Stephenson (previously McGarry) of 7 Dixons Row, Calder St, Coatbridge. Robert left all his property and effects to his mother and in the event of her death to his brother Thomas at the same address. Thomas' son was named after his brother. Warrant Officer 11 (CSM) Robert McGarry (2759455) of the 1st Battalion Black Watch fell on the 27/06/1944 aged 24. His uncle Robert's effects contained a tin, photos, cards, diary, mirror and shaving brush. From the 1901 Census - Address - 33 Merrystone St, Coatbridge - Stepfather William Stephenson aged 52, mother Ann Stephenson aged 51, Thomas McGarry aged 24, Robert McGarry aged 20. Robert's Pension was awarded to his mother on the 31/10/1915, the 26/10/1916 and the 08/11/1917. Employment was Engine Driver previously at the Woodside Iron Works

Buried/remembered at Shell Green Cemetery (Il. H. 7), Turkey

1914  1918

©2023 coatbridgeandthegreatwar.com