In memory of

2nd Lieutenant

Herbert James McVie

16th (Service) Battalion (2nd Edinburgh) Royal Scots (Lothian Regiment)
Service No: N/A

Died on the 11/05/1923 at home, age 27 / DOB - 15/02/1896. Son of James McVie (18/07/1864 - 02/11/1900) and Catherine McVie (15/03/1866 - 11/07/1957). Catherine married Edward Lapsley (1860 - 13/06/1944) after her first husband James died. They lived at 272 Dundyvan Rd, Coatbridge. Herbert's mothers stepson Private Charles Lapsley of the 1st/4th West Riding Regiment was Killed in Action on the 20/11/1915. Herbert had 2 brothers, William Arnold McVie (22/09/1891 - 1946) and Alfred Edward McVie (14/06/1900 - /12/1973). He also had 1 half sister Jane (Jean) Veronica Lapsley (01/04/1904 - 18/01/1980) and 1 half brother Thomas Harold Lapsley (22/01/1906 - 29/01/1976). From the 1901 England Census - Address - 191 Fordingley Rd, Paddington, London - Catherine McVie aged 35, William McVie aged 9, James Herbert McVie aged 5, Alfred McVie aged 9 months. From the 1911 Census - Address - 22 Albert St, Calton, Edinburgh - Grandmother Jane Devite aged 74, Uncle Alfred Devite aged 41, Uncle Martin Devite aged 41, William McVie aged 19, Herbert J McVie aged 15. Herbert's Pension was awarded to his mother Catherine. Employment was Student at Edinburgh University

Buried/remembered at Piershill Cemetery, Edinburgh

1914 1918

©2023 coatbridgeandthegreatwar.com