

In memory of

Corporal
Peter O'Hare

1st Battalion Cameronians (Scottish Rifles)
Service No: 30338

Killed in Action on the 09/10/1918 during the Liberation of the Village of Clary (part of the pursuit to the Selle and Battles of the Hindenburg Line), age 21 / DOB - 01/10/1897. Son of Peter O'Hare (1874 - 09/11/1951) and Rose Ann Mead O'Hare (08/10/1880 - 20/11/1952) of 10c Bank Lane, Langloan, Coatbridge. Peter's cousin Private Charles Mead of the 12th (Service) Battalion Royal Scots was Killed in Action on the 25/04/1918. From the 1901 Census - Address - 7 Buchanan St, Coatbridge - Peter's grandmother Rose Mead aged 55, boarders Edward Burns aged 30, Philip McColl aged 20, Patrick McGunigal aged 19, Peter's mother Rose Ann O'Hare aged 19, Peter O'Hare aged 5, Peter's sister Rose Ann O'Hare aged 1, Peter's aunt Mary Gillon aged 23, Peter's cousin John Gillon aged 1.

Peter had 8 more sisters and 2 brothers, Mary Elizabeth O'Hare born 22/01/1901, Elizabeth O'Hare (1902 - 16/10/2011), Mary (Mollie) O'Hare born 17/07/1905, Sarah (Sadie) O'Hare born 05/03/1908, Catherine (Katie) O'Hare born 29/10/1910, Margaret (Maggie) O'Hare (05/02/1911 - 1996), James O'Hare (20/02/1915 - 08/09/1979), Monica O'Hare (11/11/1917 - 17/11/1999), Alice O'Hare (21/12/1919 - 12/03/1984) and Mark O'Hare (14/01/1923 - 27/04/1977). Peter's Pension was awarded to his mother Rose. Employment was Langloan Iron Works.

Buried/remembered at Highland Cemetery (XI. C. 1), Le Cateau, Nord, France.

1914  1918

©2023 coatbridgeandthegreatwar.com