

In memory of

Lance Corporal

Adam Boyd

6th (Service) Battalion Cameron Highlanders

Service No: S/11391

Killed in Action on the 09/10/1916 at the Battle of Transloy (Battle of the Somme), age 29. Son of William and Elizabeth Boyd. Adam's Will dated 08/07/1915 left everything to his younger brother Wallace Boyd c/o Richardson, 7 Adelaide St, Gourock. Adam's brother Private Wallace Boyd, 34th Machine Gun Corps (119060) - Husband of Matilda Edgar McKimm Boyd (09/03/1896-), 2 John Wood St., Port Glasgow, Renfrewshire. Employed in the Torpedo Factory. Brother of Adam, John and William. Leaves a widow and two children, Wallace Boyd born 04/05/1916 and Thomas McKimm Boyd born 28/03/1918. Formerly 46698 Royal Scots. Killed in action - 16/04/1918 aged 25. Buried - Bailleul Communal Cemetery Extension, France. Grave Reference Sp. Mem. B. 2. (Wallace is NOT listed on the Memorial). From the 1901 Census - Address - 9 Adelaide St, Inverkip, Gourock - William Boyd aged 38, Elizabeth Boyd aged 36, Adam Boyd aged 15, John Boyd aged 13, William Boyd aged 11, Wallace Boyd aged 8. Adam's brother Wallace's Pension was awarded to his wife Matilda of 7 Willisons Lane, Port Glasgow on the 09/11/1918. Their 2 sons are also listed. Employment was Clyde Tube Works.

Buried/remembered at Thiepval Memorial (Pier and Face 15 B), Somme, France