In memory of

Private

William Wallace

9th (Service) Battalion Black Watch (Royal Highlanders)
Service No: S/4785

Died on the 16/09/1915 from a bullet wound to the side / shock. Wound received the previous day at Mazingarbe near Loos, age 25. Son of Robert Wallace and Jessie Wallace of 1c Barrowfield St, Coatbridge. William's elder brother Private John Wallace (8119) of the 2nd Battalion Highland Light Infantry was Killed in Action on the 03/10/1915 just 17 days after William fell. From the 1891 Census - Address - 68 Whifflet St Com Close, Coatbridge - Robert Wallace aged 28, Jessie Wallace aged 25, John Wallace aged 5, Robert Wallace aged 3, William Wallace aged 10 months. From the 1901 Census - Address - 36e Whifflet St, Coatbridge - Robert Wallace aged 38, John Wallace aged 14, Robert Wallace aged 12, William Wallace aged 11, Maggie Wallace aged 8, Rachel Wallace aged 5. William and his elder brother John's Pensions were awarded to their father Robert and their stepmother Catherine of 1c Barrowfield St, Coatbridge. Employment was Caledonian Railway Company

Buried/remembered at Noeux-les-Mines Communal Cemetery (I. A. 18), Pas de Calais, France

1914  1918

©2023 coatbridgeandthegreatwar.com